“The Whistler of Dreams”, is a 60-min storytelling show with live music. It all started from a dream about Joseph from the Old Testament. With the desire to understand his dream, Raphael decides to tell Joseph’s story. But how can one tell a story of such a flawless character? In the attempt, Raphael strips the story from its religious connotations, and seeks to understand it in the light of his own life. In the process his own imperfections come to light, one image leads to another in an intense spiral which leads to one fundamental question, “Why are we so afraid of the light?” Singer-songwriter Erik Sjøholm accompanies the stories with his magical singing. (Please be aware that this performance contains challenging and mature content of a highly personal and emotive nature)
